

perspectives

...on the Semiahmoo Peninsula

Christmas spirit

Uptown White Rock got into the festive spirit Saturday, as the annual Christmas on the Peninsula event was staged throughout the neighbourhood. Activities and entertainment – including carollers at the White Rock Community Centre, a holiday market, train rides and arts and crafts for youngsters – were held throughout the day, and the festivities were capped by a late-afternoon parade and Christmas-tree lighting.

